To Whom It May Concern,

The following guidelines are needed for Home-school students to participate within the Florida Christian Conference.

- Your athlete has to be enrolled in a FCC participating school exclusively.
- Your athlete is required to have an annual medical examination before the beginning of any sport.
- Your athlete will submit a report card to the Athletic Director of his/her participating school.
- Your athlete is not permitted to participate with any public or private school sector sports program.

The signatures below indicate that the student/athlete and parent agrees to the guidelines for athletic participation set by the Florida Christian Conference. A copy of this form is both in the FCC office as well as the representing school.
